

Overview

The Supervisor is an elected official; the term of office is two years.

The Supervisor is the Chief Fiscal Officer of the Town. The Town Board has also designated the Supervisor as Budget Officer. The Supervisor's Office carries out all fiscal functions of the Town; payroll, accounts payable and accounts receivable, bond payments, and investments.

The Supervisor carries out legislative actions which have been adopted by a majority vote of the Town Board. He also appoints members of the Town Board to serve on committees. Members of the Town Board may also be appointed to act in the capacity of a liaison between departments and the Town Board.

Members of the Town Board are also members of the Tusten Local Development Corporation (TLDC).

The Supervisor presides over Town Board meetings and formulates the agenda.
